The Daring Venture develops courageous and effective leaders from the inside out. We offer workshops and trainings based on Dare to Lead™, a leadership development curriculum created by Dr. Brené Brown and her staff. This research based approach increases individual and team effectiveness through building skills, knowledge and practical application in areas like vulnerability, courage, shame resilience, and empathy. Our facilitation team also complements the Dare to Lead curriculum with their training and background in positive psychology, emotional engagement, mindfulness, neuroscience, and wellness.

What People are Saying.

"This work brought immeasurable value to our management team...going through this work with the guidance of Jenny and Molly, we have strengthened our leadership capabilities. This shared experience helped us build a common language around courage and vulnerability, and it expanded our trust in each other."

~ Laurie McGinnis, Director, University of Minnesota, CTS

"We dug deep, shared out truths, fears, roadblocks, breakthroughs and daring moments. We studied the work of Dr. Brené Brown and learned to 'embrace the suck'. We started as strangers and finished as friends and confidants. Thank you for helping leaders understand how to create strong, healthy and courageous cultures!"

~ Julie Burton, CEO, ModernWell
